"Among the many sights at the Frisco station yesterday," says the Tulsa World, "was an old fashioned woman who peacefully smoked her pipe and patiently waited for her train. Although she had to wait several hours, she never murmured, and when the train pulled into the station she picked up her carpet bag and went on her way. She was going to Missouri to visit relatives, having come from Oklahoma."

The editor of this paper lost $1 in the Cimarron wreck nearly a year ago. The money was a silver certificate in a registered letter. Last Saturday a check for $1 was received by the owner of the lost money from the treasury department at Washington. A number of other Chickasha people had valuables on the ill-fated train, but the $1 received Saturday is the first claim that has been paid at the Chickasha postoffice. Several of the jewelers in the city had watch cases and diamonds in registered letters that repose in the sands of the Cimarron.—Chickasha Journal.

William C. DeMille has laid the scenes of "Strongheart" at Columbia university and furnishes a vivid and highly amusing picture of college life. Strongheart is an Indian, a son of a chief, who, through his prowess on the football field, has become a hero to his classmates at Columbia. His love for the sister of his chum, forms a motive of this play which although serious in its problem is related amid scenes of such bright, breezy comedy, that vividly photograph college life, that "Strongheart" deserves the term comedy-drama. Mr. Stuart has revealed himself as a character actor of note and has widely increased the popularity won by him in former productions. "Strongheart" scored the dramatic hit of last season both in Boston and New York, where it played a long and prosperous engagement.

Parents who are bothered and harassed with the control of their children should have a little patience with the school teacher who has a half hundred of other people's children to control. Of course, all children are little angels in disguise, but some are more "disguised" than others, and probably yours may be in this lot. Be that as it may, to pet a child and show sympathy for it in its troubles with the teacher at school is just about the surest way to teach it to disregard all authority.

Beautiful Picture Free.

Farm Progress, a big monthly agricultural paper, devoted to the interests of the American farmer, his home and industries, is giving away free with every three-year subscription a beautiful fruit picture, size 22x29 inches, entitled "Natural Fruits." This is a beautiful picture, in six colors, and makes a handsome dining-room ornament. Send 30 cents for a three-year subscription or three one-year subscriptions today. Address all orders to Farm Progress, St. Louis, Mo.

IN THE HOME ELECTRICITY has Revolutionized the work, greatly lightening the labor of the Housekeeper. She may have an Electric Fan near the Ironing board with no fear of cooling the iron. The current which keeps her cool, keeps the iron hot. She may work away all day, sitting down if she chooses, with no journeyings to the hot stove to change irons. One iron will do it all, from a lace collar to a damask table cloth. A steady, even heat, and no scorching of delicate fabrics with too hot an implement. Ask for one on trial. We will do the rest.
